Make a difference – start in your community!

- Jennifer, mother of two who attend Fern Hill School, saw a need to help nourish and inspire students
- She was passionate to provide healthy food prepared with love to improve a child's mood, health & school experience
- She believes food should be fun for kids, and healthy for the planet!

1. What was the initial spark that made you want to create this service for parents at your school?

“I wanted to help parents by providing the kind of lunch they want to give their children but they just don't have time to make it. I also wanted to help the environment by providing a lunch with absolutely no litter.”

2. LOVE BOMB is a unique name! Where did it come from?

“Each Love Bomb Lunch gives a 'love bomb' to the parent, the child and the environment. No lunch crunch each morning for parents, each box contains whole foods with zero junk or waste. It's a lot of love in one stainless steel box!

Each lunch also contains an inspiring quote, a fact or a joke, adding a touch more love, if that is even possible!”
