

WOW!

Amazing
Films for 2013...

March 20

"Movie poetry at work...

Astounding.. Compelling.. Entertaining"

4.5/5 Stars

The Vancouver Observer

May 9

Academy Award® winner... "a provocative mix of investigative journalism, eco-adventure and arresting imagery, adding up to an unforgettable story that has inspired audiences worldwide to action"

Ocean Preservation Society

June 5

"The obvious risk of a documentary featuring 20 insanely earnest and hardworking young farmers in Georgia is that it had better be really good... It does not disappoint."

Missoula Independent

Sept 25

"..takes a penetrating look at overpopulation, what fuels it and why the world has become complacent about the issue...it conveys its message in an engaging, visually immersive style that finds just the right balance between hard facts and ordinary human involvement."

Frank Kaminski

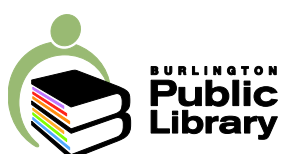

Oct 22

"Featuring humor, fast-paced editing, animation, and lots of facts presented by experts, Jon Cooksey tells about his awakening to the crisis of global warming. He advocates that the time is now to act and we are all leaders in creating solutions."

School Library Journal

Presented by:

Burlington Central Library
2331 New Street
Doors open at 6:30 pm

Please help us host
a green event
(bring your own mug, carpool/public transit if you can)

Films, audience discussion
& eco-prizes !

$5 admission or
$20 festival pass (5 films)

Details: www.burlingtonongreen.org

All films rated grades 9 - adult
Parental discretion

Printed on FSC certified paper